

To: The Federal Communications Commission

I am writing to express my opinion that Satellite radio should not be prohibited from offering local broadcasting of information that could be beneficial to satellite radio listeners. This may include weather, traffic or other subjects potentially beneficial to its listeners. The public has a right to choose the service it wants to use to receive this type of information.

I urge you to protect the right of the public for its free choice of broadcast information.

Sincerely,

John Mills